TEAM SINGLE EVENT CREDENTIAL WILL-CALL ORDER FORM

NOTE: Each person listed on the credential Will-Call form must have a current AMA Pro Racing membership in order to be eligible for a single event credential.

The cost of a Basic Membership is $100.00 per person and may be purchased in advance or at registration by completing and submitting the required paperwork.

The cost of a Season Crew Credential is $750.00 and will enable you to participate in every 2010 AMA Pro Racing Road Race event as well as eliminate the need to stop at registration and pay a credential fee at each event.

Both the season crew credential and a single event credential allow for access to pit road and the racetrack surface as well as the paddock and general grounds.

These credentials are “Hot Pit” credentials and will not be issued to persons under the age of 16 years. If you do not require access to the above mentioned areas, you may purchase a spectator ticket directly from the facility at each event.

The single event credentials you are ordering will be available for pick-up at Will-Call located in registration during each event. Please notify all crew members to check the event schedule posted on the AMA Pro Racing website frequently prior to their arrival for any updates including but not limited to registration hours. You should also insure that everyone is aware of the fact that a Photo-ID MUST be presented at registration by each person in order to pick up their credential. There will be NO EXCEPTIONS to this requirement.

All Will Call orders turned in at registration require additional processing time and will be prepared as time allows. Any changes or additions made to the Team Credential Will-Call list after the opening of registration, whether submitted by fax, e-mail, phone or in person must be submitted during registration hours in order to be available for pick up by the individuals on the following day.

If you wish to pay for your crew member’s credentials and have not given us their individual names ahead of time along with your payment information by turning in a Team Will Call form, you must come to Registration with your crew members yourself. You may NOT send people to Registration with your credit card. We have had too many issues with credit cards being used where the individual possessing the card was not one of the approved signers on the card.

Your credit card will be charged each time one of the crew members on your list arrive at registration to claim their credentials. You will not be charged for names that are on the list but do not come to registration to claim their credentials.
