

Competitor Bulletin # 2022-05

SUBJECT: 2022 Official Progressive AFT Test Dates

Progressive American Flat Track Community,

Progressive AFT will be hosting an official test day prior to the following rounds of the 2022 Progressive AFT Championship Season:

- I-70 Half-Mile - Friday April 22, 2022 - Deadline for entry, April 20
- Laconia Short - Track Friday June 10, 2022 - Deadline for entry, June 10
- Cedar Lake Short Track - Friday September 23, 2022 - Deadline for entry, September 21

The test will be open to current AFT licensed competitors and conducted with the same considerations regarding safety and event operations as all other Progressive AFT rounds, including airfence deployment and timing & scoring.

Additionally, Progressive AFT will provide one staff photographer to provide photo assets for participating riders and teams, as is done on a regular event day. Pre-event testing participants may also be included in any on-site local media opportunities that are produced ahead of these events. Progressive AFT Marketing/Communications staff will be available to assist participating riders and teams with any relevant questions, requests, and social media coaching.

A detailed schedule will be published prior to each scheduled test day.

The entry fee for the test day is $250. Entry into the test days will close on the indicated dates unless the maximum number of riders is met prior to those dates.

Event registration can be found here: <https://members.amapracing.com>