Progressive American Flat Track Community,

This season's New York Short Track at Weedsport Speedway in Weedsport, New York, will run as a doubleheader weekend, adding an additional round on Friday, August 13, to the previously scheduled round on Saturday, August 14. This doubleheader will return the '21 slate back up to the planned number of events at 17 following last month's weather-related cancellation of the Texas Half-Mile.

Another addition to the 2021 schedule is the return of the AFT Singles to the Springfield Short Track on Friday, September 3. Repeating the model launched in 2020, the AFT Singles will be competing in two race programs in the same evening. After qualifying rounds, the competitors will run two sets of Semis and two Main Events. The Springfield Short Track will mark the opening of a three-day AFT racing event for fans as the Springfield Mile doubleheader weekend will run the following two days.
